HONOLULU, JAN. 10, 1888. There has been but one arrival from foreign ports, during the week, the S. G. Wilder. Two vessels have sailed for San Francisco, the Ella and the W. H. Dimond, with cargoes of the aggregate value of nearly $87,000. Sugars from inter-island ports amount to 31,581 bags; rice and paddy, 3,437 bags; live stock 329 head, with sundry other articles of

The receipts of sugars from the plantations have been short as compared with the same period last year. The diminution is due mainly to heavy rains all over the country, in December, interfering with field work so waiting for cane.

produce in smaller quantities.

The tables of exports, for the last quarter of 1887 and for the years 1887 and 1886, in another column, show a decrease in the sngar exports for last year as compared with those of the preceding year, of 3,372,068 pounds. This decrease may be due largely to the cause mentioned above, bad weather for cutting cane during the latter part of the year.
The rice industry has developed, as will be seen by the figures, very largely, the quantities raised having nearly doubled.

According to the custom house valuation of $155,183.01 for 3.826,100 pounds (the figures for the last quarter), the value of the 13,675, 400 pounds for the year would be $554,661.33.

By a similar calculation, the value of the year's export of sugar is found to be $7,252,- 715,48, The rice exports, therefore, amount in value to upwards of 7% per cent. of the sugar exports.

The wool products seem to be on the decline here as well as in the United States.

Banana exports have expanded by about 30 per cent., which is a favorable indication, as regards that branch of agricultural in-

Frights overland, from San Francisco, to points East, during eleven months to Nov. 30th, amounted to 194,299 tons.

The revenues of the United States Post Office department, last fiscal year, show an increase of nearly $4,840,000 over any previous year. The Comptroller of the currency propos several amendments to the banking laws with the view of bringing bank directors under more specific responsibility for the discharge of their daties, and for the better regulation of other branches of the business. The Western Union Telegraph Company has been reducing its rates. The reductions affect all parts of the country except between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, the rates between these points remaining as before. The reductions are believed to be a ruse of the Company for the purpose of breaking the force of the agitation for placing the tele-graph, like the post office, under the control and ownership of the Government. Nearly $90,000 worth of salmon and wool went from San Francisco to New York, Boston, Hartford, etc., during the month of mber by way of the Canadian Pacific

In the Fort Street School, some more advanced branches of study than heretofore pursued, will be introduced. This school, under the masterly ability and tact of Professor Scott, is gaining a higher reputation every term, and in the quantity and practical character of the work done in it, will bear favorable comparison with similar establishments anywhere.

The Royal School, too, with the indefatigable labors of Rev. A. Mackintosh, has be-come a center of intelligence for native boys for which the country has great reason to be profoundly grateful.

The Poliukaina Girls' School has also made for itself a large place among the in-stitutions of enlightened civilization hap-pily established in this city. In this school, Miss Corney and her assistants have done some excellent work and there is no doubt their future efforts will be rewarded with no less gratifying results than in the past.

The Royal Reception.

Their Majesties the King and Queen held New Year's reception, according to rather brief notice, from eleven to one o'clock on Princess Liliuokalani and Princess Kaiulani, Governor Dominis and Hou, A. S. Cleg-hore, also Princes David and Jonah, represented the royal family in the throne room, where Their Majesties received the visitors. Hon. A. F. Judd, Chancellor, and Associate Justices Preston and Bickerton, besides many other prominent officials and citizens, were among those who attended the levee Cols, G. W. Mactariane and H. F. Bertelmann waited upon the King, while Hon. C. P. Iaukes, H. M.'s Chamberlain, usbered in His Majesty cordially shook hands with the ladies and gentlemen as they were pre-sented, as Her Majesty did with those of her previous acquaintance A very large number of people were introduced during the two hours, the autographs taking four pages of the visitors' book. There was a splendid floral display in the Educational Society. Gentleman friends of the organization had during the day, for the sake of belping the cause, per-sonally done the decorating. Well was it done, too, flags of all nations, interspersed with greenery, draping the walls very The royal standard hung at the head

His Majesty was present, making himself very agreeable with the company. Princess Liliuokalani, President of the Society, with her husband, Gov. Dominis, Sir William Wiseman, Bart., commander of H. B. M. S. Caroline, several American naval officers, Hon. Antone Rosa and many other notables were conspicuous in the gay scene. There was a large assemblage of Hawaiian ladies, filling rows of seats all along the two sides of the spacious room. Attired neatly and fash-ionably, with many young damsels mostly in white, they appeared a galaxy of native beauty such as is seldom brought together. This was the first Hawaiian ball occurring for a long time.

A programme of regulation ball dances executed in good style, the whole Boyal Ha-waiian Band, in full uniform, furnishing music from a raised platform at the foot of the hall. The event appears to have been arranged at very short notice, yet proved a brilliant success throughout. Proceeds, that are likely handsome owing to the amount of gratnitous work done, will go to the Society. The ball was conducted on temperauce principles, no stimulants being fur-nished in the bill of refreshments.
